Re: In re JPMorgan Precious Metals Spoofing Litigation, 18-CV-10356 (JGK) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Koeltl:

Plaintiffs met and conferred with the Department of Justice (“DOJ”) and understand that DOJ plans to file a motion to stay this case indefinitely, pending the resolution of related criminal matters.¹ Plaintiffs intend to oppose this motion and respectfully request that the Court establish a briefing schedule that gives the Plaintiffs one week, or until Thursday, November 7, 2019, to respond to DOJ’s motion.

The DOJ has not consented to this schedule request. Plaintiffs consent to an extension of the current stay while the Court evaluates the DOJ’s expected motion.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Vincent Briganti
